Program Service Fee: All participating relief agencies are privately funded and have made a commitment to the long term recovery of disaster areas. We are asking volunteer groups to pay a program service fee of $35.00 per person per day. This fee pays for all food, lodging, volunteer project management and creates a sustainable source of funds for relief agencies.

One third of your service fee is due 90 days prior to your program start date and reserves your space. (This deadline is negotiable based on individual circumstances)
The balance is due 30 days before program start date.
